PNEUMONIA CLAIMS LOVED ONE

Mrs. Archie Gale, Pretty Young Wife and Mother Succumbs After Brave Struggle

"Death lies on her like an untimely frost upon the sweetest flower of all the field"

At midnight Sunday the soul of a beautiful young wife and mother, Mrs. Archie Gale of Riverside drive El Verano took wing from its mortal tnement and entered the great eternity leaving to mourn her a devoted family who had hoped their beloved one after a brave struggle with influenza might be spared them. So young, so beloved, and esteemed it seemed too cruel an exaction that she be called from the family circle where she was the joy and life and hope of all but the dread influenza and pneumonia took its toll and she passed away peacefully and quietly on Sunday. Three little children, Florence, Lucile and Elwood and her husband Archie R. Gale are irreconcilable over their loss.

Georg Lavinia Gale was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McAfee and was born in Shasta County November 14, 1884. She was the sister of Miss Ruth McAfee of Eldridge Lawerence and Vernon Mc Afee of Santa Rosa, Andrew and Albert McAfee of San Francisco, Mrs. Weymeyer of Auburn and Leslie a soldier in France. On October 24, 1906 she married Archie R. Gale at Santa Rosa, the union being an unusually happy one. In 1909 Mr. Gale and his young wife located here and in their pretty home near El Verano spent several all too short years. During her residence here the gentle mannered pleasant little woman made many friends and with her three pretty children and husband the devotion was very often commented upon for it was a family group to be envied. Husband and wife were stricken with the epidemic recently and the complication of pneumonia which developed in Mrs. Gale's case led to her untimely passing.

The funeral was held Wednesday from the family home and was conducted by Rev. Peter Colvin who married the couple in 1906. Interment was at Santa Rosa.

SONOMA DONOR TO "OUR BOYS IN FRANCE TOBACCO FUND" GETS REPLY.

A card came this week with a message from one of America's fighting men to Jep Valente, acknowledging the receipt of smokes bought with Jep's contribution to the "Our Boys In France Tobacco Fund" conducted by the Index-Tribune some months ago. Needless to say the message will be treasured by the recipient who feels that he never spent a dollar better in his life. The card is as follows;

Golden Stars In Service Flag of Sonoma Families

FRANK BOSCH OF VINEBURG MAKES SUPREME SACRIFICE AND A GRANDSON OF JAS. B. MORRIS OF AGUA CALIENTE ALSO GIVES LIFE FOR COUNTRY

"Stars of Gold! Sad hearts are aching
Mothers, be brave, tho' your poor hearts are breaking—
Be proud, through your sorrow, of your brave lads and true—
Who died for the sake of the Red, White and Blue."

Frank Bosch, scarcely past 18 years of age and a son of Capt. and Mrs. Peter Bosch of Vineburg, has made the supreme sacrifice somewhere in France. A telegram from the government advised the parents of the young patriot, that he had succumbed to wounds received in battle.

Frank Bosch was born here in Sonoma Valley and went to the San Luis school He had two brothers in the Navy and with impetuous spirit to join the colors even though so young, he went into the army last June. The sad news of his untimely death has cast a shadow upon the community and turns another star on our service flag to gold.

Besides his brothers in the Navy and fond parents, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Maurice Levy and Mrs. Fuller Rochat who are grief stricken at the loss of their favorite brother.

No details concerning the young man's wounding and subsequent death are available at this time but letters are anxiously awaited.

Lt. Madison of Air Service Goes To Death In Accident

Lieut. Clinton R. Madison son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Madison formerly of this place but now of Petaluma was killed somewhere in France on November 5th through an aeroplane accident. He was a grandson of J. B. Morris of Caliente and newphew of Ralph and Ed. Morris and Mrs. L. C. Rich of the Morris ranch and Mrs. Harry Lutgens of Sebastopol. Of the splendid young patriot who has given his life in the service of his country the Petaluma Argus said,

"Born in Petaluma he was aged 24 years. He was a graduate of the Petaluma High school with high honors a few years ago and later took a position in the office of the Golden Eagle Milling Company, resigning to enter the University of California. He gave up his studies at the university to join the army, entering the aviation corps. After enlisting he was sent to Texas and later to France, where he had been for several months. He was commissioned a lieutenant soon after entering the army. While in France he wrote regularly to his parents describing the pleasure he found in the exciting life. He was stationed at the same camp with Lieut. Paul Sales of this city, the young officers going to France at the same time. He had been making flights for over three months and was very fearless and efficient. He visited here on furlough before going overseas.

In the tragic death of the splendid youth, the first gold star is added to the service flag of the Congregational church and Rev. Farrington, the pastor, touchingly alluded to the death of the young officer at Sundays service. The first golden star, too, is added to the service flag of the Petaluma woman's club."

THANKSGIVING DINNER PARTY AT LEON MOUYER HOME

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mouyer of El Verano entertained a large number of relatives and a few friends on Thanksgiving day and served a fine dinner to their guests. Sixteen were seated about the festive table where the spirit of true hospitality held sway and a most excellent menu was served. Turkey and young pork, raised at the country home of the host and hostess, salad, patties, croquettes, delicious dessert, champagne and black coffee were partaken of.

Toasts were given to the absent son of Mrs. Mouyer who is in the Navy, to the allies, victory and peace. A fine talk on France and the war was given by Monsieur Mouyer, and a speech by his son-in-law, Mr. Jas. McDermott of San Francisco who is a clever ranconteur. He is connected with the department of justice in that city.

After the rendition of the Star Spangled Banner on the graphanola, the dinner party came to a close with many compliments on the culinary art of Mr. Mouyer and his good wife, and joyous expressions of the pleasure of the reunion of family and friends on this bounteous holiday.

Those present were: James L. McDermott and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lourdeaux and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lourdeaux and family, Leon L. Mouyer Jr., and Miss Rose Montels, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mouyer Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Murphy.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned, brother of the late Mrs. Knackstedt, hereby wishes to extend sincere thanks and appreciation to the many friends and neighbors who showed kindnesses and expressed sympathy in the loss of a beloved sister.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Miss Dorothy Breitenbach Is Guest of Honor at Jolly Affair Given at The Adler Home

Miss Dorothy Breitenbach, the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Breitenbach was guest of honor at a surprise shower Monday evening in honor of her engagement to Merton Murdock, a popular Vallejo young man, Native Son officer and employee of the Navy yard.

The affair was given by Mrs. Adam Adler, the spacious Adler home lending itself beautifully to the delightful party. It was a complete surprise to the young guest of honor and when congratulations and gifts began to pour in upon her from the twenty or thirty friends present, she was quite overcome. The beautiful drawing room where the festivities took place had an attractive table where a bridal party of "kewpies" held sway and whereon reposed a basket containing wonderful gifts of cut glass, silver, linen, china and bric-a-brac for the bride-to-be. An orange and green color scheme was carried out in the festive streamers from the chandaliers and other ways. In addition to the basket shower of miscellaneous gifts, were the utilities for cooking and kitchen of which there was a clever presentation by Mrs. Casson in a huge apron armed with aluminium utensils, and by Mrs. Phil. Leiser and Mrs. D. Colli. Mrs. Leiser was garbed as a chef and had all the implements necessary there to which were bestowed upon the bride-to-be. Following the shower jollity there was a clothes pin contest, many funny results being accomplished by those who dressed the comical conceits. There was music, dancing and singing, the solos of Mr. Sokolay being particularly fine and at midnight a delicious repast was served at small tables where the fair fiancee of Mr. Murdock expressed her appreciation for the handsome compliment paid her approaching nuptials by the gracious hostess, Mrs. Adler and other friends. Miss Breitenbach is a stunning girl of the brunette type and is bookkeeper at the Mission Creamery. She is the sister of Mrs. Geo. Leiser, Mrs. F. Groskopf and twin sister of Miss Doreles Breitenbach. Those who felicitated her at Monday evening's party were: Mrs. Julius Fochetti, Jr., Mrs. Field, Miss Helen Kerner, Mrs. Al Kerner, Miss Stella McGill, Mr. and Mrs. Sokolay, Mrs. D. Colli, Mrs. Geo. Breitenbach, Mrs. Jack Picetti, Mrs. E. T. Casson, Miss Providence La Torres, Miss Louise Batto, Miss Mouritsen, Miss Zolita Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Vella, Miss Portia Harrison, Mrs. Phil Leiser, Mr Geo Leiser, Miss Louise Cailleaud, Mrs. L. Breitenbach, Miss Doreles Breitenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Adler, Irma and Leland Adler.

SONOMA THANKFUL FOR PROSPERITY

Review of Past Season's Activities Shows Progress in Our Valley and Substantial Development.

Despite the war, Sonoma valley has enjoyed a prosperous year and should be thankful for the progress and development made, to say nothing of the financial success which has enabled this locality to go over the top on the Liberty Loan drives and do its share in many laudable projects connected with the war.

Our farmers have been second to none in the nation in doing their bit and our acreage through their efforts has yielded its share to feed the world. Their fine spirit and practical demonstration has done much to awaken interest in Sonoma valley land and we note a great interest and predict a steady rise in the value of Sonoma realty from this year on.

The establishment here of the glove factory and the Sebastiani cannery have been splendid new additions to the community and have given us the long hoped for pay-roll. Fruit drying, wine making, apple packing and furniture manufacture have all given an impetus to the business transacted in Sonoma Valley during 1918.

The first fruit crop of the year was cherries and while cherry growing here is not on an immense scale, Sonoma cherries brought fancy prices and there was a big crop. Employment was given to many families. As fine fruit of this variety as graced the markets of Los Angeles, San Francisco and the East was grown in Sonoma's famous cherry belt.

In last week's issue we noted the record price of apples, and the fact that they were Gravensteins, the variety which made Sebastopol famous, Valley of the Moon brand apples marketed by the association formed by our growers is one of the achievements of the year which is destined to boost Sonoma's future. Packing and grading gives employment to quite a few people and the talk of a modern dryer and evaporator, to be built for next season's culls will be the means of putting still more money into the pockets of our orchardists.

Bartlett Pears raised here in Sonoma Valley brought as high as $4 a box in New York but some of the shipments deteriorated in shipment due to improper refrigeration and our pear growers lost heavily on these. However claims against the government controlled railroad lines have been put in and there may be some adjustments made which will compensate shippers of this choice fruit. Pear growers who sold their crops here realized a handsome profit and all low grade fruit found a ready sale at local dryers.

Prunes, barring a bad streak of weather just when the fruit was on the trays, were one of Sonoma valley's best crops this year.

Grapes at around $43 per ton and wine at near 55 cents never were known to bring a better price and our vineyards of Sonoma Valley were heavy producers in 1918.

Through the splendid market established in New York for Sonoma wines for several past seasons, enough money was realized by one producer to erect a $55,000 cannery which took care of our tomato crop which yielded in one instance, 30 tons to the acre and gave our working people $2,000 a week in wages. Tomato growing was shown to be a profitable crop for Sonoma farmers and the local cannery paid the top price for every ton delivered. Owing to a badly interrupted season, the pack as planned was not turned out, although 24,000 cases were put up at the Sonoma plant. Fortunately the government released standard pack tomatoes after the peace declaration and took only the extra special pack from Sonoma's big cannery enabling Mr. Sebastiani to fill urgent orders.

Dairy produce, cheese from the Mission Creamery and a notable effort toward thoroughbred stock and better herds, have been features of this year's rural achievements.

The poultry business in this valley will look up again with lower price of feed and the association through recent recognition by such producers as Corless Bros. of Petaluma, takes pride in the original faith shown in the organization by many of Sonoma Valley's leading chicken men.

Altogether Sonoma has had a season of prosperity of which we may all feel proud.

Mrs. L. H. Green has returned home after spending sometime in San Francisco.

"My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty."

How Can Harping Criticism Give Thanks?

IT SEEMS as though anything along the line of a Thanksgiving discourse should emanate from a preacher rather than from the editorial sanctum but we would like to locate a good chaplain-preacher, one of the kind who has had a man's job this past year at the front who would get up in the pulpit and voice some sentiment such as we feel would be apropops to the occasion, having confidence that the battle seasoned parson would realize how thankful this country should be and could impress his broader understanding upon those deaf to notes of optimism.

We believe that Thanksgiving should be a universal day and it should be one of introspection—a searching after truth—a positive day to give thanks for the goodly side of life and the blessings we are prone to overlook or take for granted. Nor should we forget our findings as soon as the last turkey bone has gone to the dogs or the last piece of mince pie has reduced the dyspepsia tablets to the last one. We should commune with ourselves, and having seen the light, should sound the joyous note of Thanksgiving all the year.. Too much Thanksgiving spirit is of the sort that says "I am thankful, mighty thankful, oh Lord, that I am so much better than my neighbor, but I shall stand aloof and I thank thee that the wickedness is revealed to me in all things, and when I reach the life eternal, I shall be perfect and there will be nothing to do up there if all are like me, but to fill my niche and shine by my own light, and all lights must be of the same spiritual candle power, and then consider how glorious all this effulgence will be." All of which spells no progress and takes a lot of charm from eternity, for an eternity without progress, development and mile stones would pall upon most of us, for eternity is the long, long trail leading up and on toward a perfection which we may even now be striving toward. But the point is this, let us not strive to attain the goal all in a year or in the short allotment of time we have on this sphere. So long as there is no retrogression, let us be thankful, thankful just for the clods with its "stir of life," with the instinctive groping for betterment, for the normal development which Thanksgiving retrospection is sure to reveal all about us. This is the sort of forward looking people who will make the world glad, whereas those who want a short cut to the millenium are the real joy killers, make a travesty of Christianity and its teachings of the brotherhood of man.

The war, fresh with horrors and which has held lives dear to us in its hungry jaws should teach a lesson of great thanksgiving, now that its deadly fangs have been released. War and its uncertainties has taught us just how much family ties mean and it has taught the lesson of valuation to thoughtless youth who far from home, were oft reminded of home blessings hitherto unrealized. It has taught the lesson of tolerance, and should turn many from the scolding mart of criticism and negative viewpoint to the satisfaction to be found in liberalism.

Moral Bolshevik's who want all virtues on a rule or ruin program, are not consistent celebrants of a Thanksgiving day and are spoiling all the other days of the year. They are suspicious, grouchy, restless and fight over a political bone as though to proclaim that by politics the millenium would be attained. When such fallacies burn themselves out and cease to flare up, slow going Christian development will assert itself as of old and we may more truly celebrate Thanksgiving in our democratic countries.

Let us hear the optimistic note from our pulpits, the voice of reason, practical, constructive, enduring Christianity. Though it labor through the ages, it will be creative of better citizenship than the preachment which like Bolshevism would attain a rank, forced growth, only to die a natural death in the atmosphere of realism with which this sphere has been provided. Idealism has its place and its beauty, but unharnessed, it runs rough shod over reason, and its followers, the extremists, must renounce all just claim to a day for giving thanks in this jolly old world or appear ridiculous and inconsistent.

Prohibition not Democracy But Benevolent Despotism

THE SIGNING of the National Prohibition measure by President Wilson which goes into effect July 1st of the coming year unless disarmament is completed by that time, will deal a hard dlow to our vineyardists and wine makers who will not be permitted to utilize their valuable crops or sell their vintage at a time when prices have never been better. To bring this dead loss upon many industrious and excellent people is manifestly unjust. With "wet" conditions obtaining in European countries, it appears inconsistent to seek to enforce prohibition in the United States.

The idea was never promulgated as an honest war measure The war was just an excuse to further the propaganda of prohibition cranks and though the war has ended, they continue to crowd along their senseless program of reform. We accepted many hardships and denied ourselves much in the food line and otherwise to help in the winning of the war that benign democracy might spread its protecting mantle o'er oppressed peoples. Now if we are to demonstrate democracy's workings by curtailing the rights of the individual to eat or drink what he pleases, it will make of liberty a positive travesty. A new sort of benevolent despotism were a better name for such an arrangement, the benevolent adjective being from the standpoint of the misguided and ill-advised regulators of the conduct and business of their fellow citizens.

But all of that has been threshed out time and again, the only question now being the application of this mad legislation at no far distant date unless perchance all the war forces are mustered out by July first and our men come back from over seas to awaken alarmists to the folly of the whole senseless program. Let us hope it will be that way and that our most excellent people who would be effected by its drastic provisions will be spared such treatment after all they have given in the war and all they will continue to do to up-build the country, provided they are allowed to till their soil, gather their crops and realize the fruits of peace, un-molested by legislative vandals.

TO BOAST of having the whip hand over Californians through legislative manipulation after California has just expressed itself forceably against prohibition, shows that the drys would ignore the voice of the people and strangle democracy, and at that the voice of the people had they all spoken, would have been in mightier protest against the arrangement, but many do not avail themselves of democracy's opportunity to become citizens, and many of our young virile voters were away at war, so the people did not speak as they might have done.

If legislators ratify in the face of conditions in California, they should go down in history as base traitors, not representatives of anything but the arbitrary program of advocates of class legislation. Prohibition is democracy's enemy, temperance her ally.

****

SAN FRANCISCO'S vote on the "wet" and "dry" issue in the recent election is characterized by that jaundiced visioned Hitchborn as "a dark blotch" and he otherwise maligns the great city by the Golden Gate. What about the gold blotch—San Francisco's record in the four Liberty Loans? It was a wonderful record and so far outdistances "dry" Los Angeles and "dry" Seattle that there is no comparison. Those millions poured into the lap of the nation to help finance the war by generous, patriotic, liberty-loving San Francisco shows what manner of town it is despite the calamity howlers who do not relish a city which will not truckle to them.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

And there wasn't a single mask to be seen Monday morning! It was with a feeling of gladness and yet regret, too, that we bade them farewell for they were most convenient for camouflage when we wanted to laugh or whisper; and then, too, teachers couldn't scold so long or so often, muzzled thus.

We think it a great shame to have to come to school the day after Thanksgiving! Who could have wished such a sentence upon us and what have we done to provoke it? However, History, Mathematics, English, Latin, and everything else will be so conglomerated with turkey, cranberries, pumpkin pie, plum pudding, and all, that the teachers will be sorry any one ever thought of having school on that day.

Preparations are now being made for carrying out the work laid down in the course in Physieal training in our high school.

A Basket-Ball Court—Goals have been erected in the north side for a basket-ball court for the girls.

A Baseball Diamond—On the south side of the building the boys are out in full force laying saw and axe to the trees to clear the ground for a baseball diamond. Some trees have merely lost part of their limbs, but one or two are being removed. Of these,one is a large maple whose shade for years has kept out the sun and tempered the heat of the history room for the pupils sitting there.

The students of the S. V. U. H. S., with perhaps the exception of the members of the baseball team, are mourning the loss of this beloved maple and regretting that the sacrifice of it was necessary on account of the lack of space for sports on our school ggrounds.

The school ground at Petaluma is eight acres in extent, that of Woodland, twelve, that of Gilroy twenty. Physical training of the young is considered so important in this state that a state bureau of Physical Education was recently established, courses in it laid down for all the schools both elementary and secondary, a place demanded for it on the daily program of every school, teachers specially trained for giving it to both boys and girls required in every faculty. To meet the demands of this new work, the schools must increase the size of their grounds to provide ample space for courts for tennis, volloy ball, baseball, hand ball and basket ball; a track for running, and sufficient space for hurdling, pole-vaulting and other field sports.

Our school has the teachers, Mr. Cole having taken the work required of boys and Miss McRae that for girls. When will we have sufficient grounds and equipment?

A game of basket ball with Santa Rosa has been scheduled for Dec. 6.

In order to give the pupils opportunities for practice in public speaking, proggrams of reading and music will be given as often as possible on Friday afternoons. The program for this week, Friday, Nov. 29, is as follows;

The League for Peace," Wilson .... Norma Jansen
"How they Brougght the Good News" ..... Portia Harrison
An account of the works and death of Joyce Kilmer, the Soldier Poet, ... Christine Smith
A Poetical Tribute To Joyce Kilmer ..... Zolita Bates
"Roofs," a poem by Joyce Kilmer, ... Louise Anderson
"Trees," a poem by Joyce Kilmer, ... Antoinette Froment

Treatment of Seed Wheat for Prevention of Smut.

(By B. S. Cole)

Place the seed wheat in half sacks tied at the end. Immerse in Bluestone solution (1 lb. to 4 gallons of water) for three to five minutes; then dip in a lime solution made from 1 lb of burnt lime (quick lime) slaked in 10 gallons of water. Soak for four or five minutes and then dry thoroughly if the grain is to be stored longer than two or three days. As soon as the lime solution becomes blue, replace it with a fresh one.

Following the Bluestone solution with one of lime prevents Bluestone injury and coats the seed with Bordeaux which is very effective against soil infection.. Be sure to spray the drill box with Bluestone.

VOICES APPRECIATION

As the United War Work Campaign has closed, I have been asked by Mr. Lyman L Pierce, western department campaign director, to express to you his appreciation of the valuable assistance your newspaper has rendered.

Never before in the history of this country has a drive for funds been so dependent upon the newspapers for success. With the speaking program virtually eliminated because of influenza conditions, with schools in most sections closed, with public gatherings forbidden, the only method of getting our message to the people has been through the newspapers.

We feel that we owe the loyal, patriotic, unselfish newspapers of the west our gratitude and thanks, and in behalf of Mr. Pierce, and the members of the executive committee in the western department, I want to express to you our deep appreciation for all you have done to make this campaign a success.

I am, Very sincerely yours,
F. F. RUNYON
Director of Publicity, United War Work Campaign, Western Dept.

Don't Be Tricked Into Using Alum Baking Powder

If demonstrators try to get you to use inferior baking powders by false tests and statements, carefully read the label and see if the powders contain alum.

And remember that alum is derived from mineral sources, and declared by many medical authorities unsafe to use in food.

To insure healthful, appetizing food of finer texture and flavor, prudent housekeepers always use

ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

Its superiority in all the qualities that make the perfect baking powder is never questioned.

Contains No Alum Leaves No Bitter Taste

ALLOW SAN QUENTIN-RICHMOND FARE RAISE

The Richmond and San Rafael Ferry and Transportation Company and the San Quentin Stage Company were authorized by the State Railroad Commission yesterday to increase pasenger fares The companies showed the Commission that their operating expenses had been increased because of the increased cost of fuel oil and labor. The stage company showed that for the first seven months of 1918 it lost $406.82 a month on its San Rafael San Quentin run. The new schedule permits the companies to charge 17 cents for adults carried between Point Richmond and Point San Quentin, 33 cents between Point Richmond and San Rafael and 22 cents between Point Richmond and San Quentin prison. —Chronicle

JACK LONDON'S PROPERTY DIVIDED WITH DAUGHTERS

The last chapter is written in the domestic history of the late Jack London, leading prophet of the "Valley of the Moon," who died about two years ago, leaving an estate appraised at $42,567.87, of which $30,832.12 was in personal property, largely represented by copyrights on his books and contracts with numerous American and British publishers. $6645.74 was in cash and the balance of $5100 was in Berkeley and Piedmont realty. The special executors, Mrs. Eliza Shepard, sister of the novelist, and Walter L. Growall, filed in Superior Judge Denny's department of the superion court, Monday afternoon, notice of a compromise of the contest instituted by the first wife, Mrs. Bessie London, to enforce an agreement which the writer entered into at the time of the divorce, by which he obligated himself to keep in force life insurance policies aggregating $15,000 in face value for her benefit and for their two daughters, Joan and Bess London, who are now over 14 years of age.

These insurance policies were allowed to lapse and in lieu thereof, Jack London, then in the height of his fame and popularity, signed on April 23, 1913, a promissory note for $15,000, secured by mortgage on the Alameda county real estate. On this obligation there has been paid $5000 and the claim was appraised at $10,000 as the balance due. The widow, Mrs. Charmian K. London, and the sister, Mrs. Eliza Shepard, who is business manager, are residing on the London estate at Glen Ellen; Mrs. London, to whom the late novelist especially commended his two daughters, is credited with having negotiated this compromise, whereby Joan and Bess London are each to receive monthly payments of $150 until they reach their 22nd birthday or are married. The first Mrs. London will be deeded the Piedmont home, which is valued at $5000.

Mrs. Shepard and Mr. Growall testified in court and were represented by Mrs. E. H. Ryan, an attorney from the law firm of Metson, Drew & McKenzie. Mrs Charmian K. London, the widow, was an interested spectator of the proceedings, but took no public part therein. She was gowned in a becoming combination costume of purple and color. —Republican.

FIRE ENGINE FOR FORT BRAGG

A handsome new combination auto chemical and hose wagon for the Fort Bragg fire department, mounted on a Studebaker chassis, passed through Healdsburg Monday en route by road for Fort Bragg. It was in charge of Mr. Little, the agent who sold it to that city, and two members of the fire department. Members of the Healdsburg fire department hoped that the engine was for their city when it was seen on the street. "We surely need it" said one man.

—Healdsburg-Tribune.

Sonoma likewise needs a chemical engine. Let's get busy.

GLOVE FACTORY REPORTS SHORTAGE OF MATERIAL

The local cutting shop of the California Glove Company finds itself confronted with a shortage of split leather of the kind used in the making of army mitts and the work on government contracts is proceeding with a reduced force this week. Quite a few employees took advantage of conditions to take the holiday week off. The government contracts will be completed by the first of the year and commercial orders will then be filled and the factory expects to be the scene of great activity. Plenty of fine skins are on hand for this class of work and salesmen on the road are closing many big orders for the California made gloves. The sewing department of the local factory is working this week as usual, in fact with a bigger force than at any time since the epidemic.

FORDSON TRACTOR ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION

Ralph Busby of the Ford Agency of Busby and Coates went to Petaluma Tuesday and drove over a Fordson tractor which has been attracting much attention among local farmers. Mr. Busby handled the machine with great ease and was surprised at the speed he could make He also left the road at several points and made a detour over rough fields thus saving much time in making the trip. The Fordson which sells at $970.93 is a powerful machine adapted for all farm purposes and will be found as durable and satisfactory as any tractor every built. It has many points of advantage which the agents will be pleased to point out.

A perfect day of atmosphere and spirit marked the Thanksgiving day of 1918 in Sonoma.

All day the sun shone warm and radiantly over the valley already rich in verdant green from seasonable rainfall.

Many family reunions were enjoyed.
